

CPYRGHT

Hostesses Named for Tour Of McLean Homes and Gardens

McLean House and Garden Tour visitors on Wednesday will be greeted at the six homes, opened for the first time to the public, by 79 Washington area hostesses and mothers of the McLean Boys' Club members.

AMONG THE well-known hostesses will be an actress, a song writer, the wife of a Supreme Court judge, wives of cabinet members, senators, representatives, Department of Defense officials and the military and members of the Junior League of Washington, the Northern Virginia Service League and the Mothers of the McLean Boys' Club.

In addition to hostesses in the homes, on duty in the morning session (11 a.m. when the tour opens until 2 p.m.) or afternoon session (from 2 p.m. until the tour closes at 5 p.m.), there will be two McLean Boys' Club mothers manning an information table at the entrance of each home where tickets may be purchased.

HOSTESSES AND the houses and gardens at which they will function are listed below.

HOME OF MR. AND MRS. CARLTON PUTNAM: Mmes. Lester Lindow, Samuel Knox Eaton, W. W. Quinn, J. Berry Wallace, and Howard Osborne (morning); Donald Dawson (Elona Massey), Hankins Fort; George Smathers and Paul Rogers (afternoon); Maurice E. Casey, C. Oliver Iselin, Mayo Fitzhugh, and Robert Hankins (table).

HOME OF MR. AND MRS. DAVID NORTON YERKES: Mmes. Clive L. DuVall II, J. Murray Mitchell, Charles Edwards, and Francis Rue (morning); Sam Gibbons, Walter T. Skallerup Jr., J. M. Colton Hand, and David Holdsworth (afternoon); Craig Creushaw, Herbert Bryan, Gregg Phaneuf, and Donald L. Ranard (table).

Home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert

S. Scoville Jr.; Mmes. Stewart Udall, Archibald Cox, James Roosevelt, Willett Kempton, Wallace Wickham and Edward Tauss (morning); James McFarland, Claud Engle and John W. Holton (afternoon); Donald Curton, M. R. Pristach, Alvin C. Berg and John Orear (table).

HOME OF MR. AND MRS. TOM KILLEFER: "Pimmit Meadow"; Mmes. John Macy, John Harper, Joseph Dolan, Ramsey Clark and H. Cabell Maddux Jr. (morning); Byron White, Alfred Luesenhop, Dorsey Richardson, Arthur Arundel and William Willauer (afternoon); William Foster, Wayne Curren, Thomas O'Mahoney and L. R. Poundstone (table).

Home of Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Bragdon: Mmes. Samuel Carpenter, Horace Henderson, James B. Clarke Jr., and Scott Heuer Jr. (morning); R. Clarke Giles Jr., Melvin E. Cox, William Marshall Miller, Julian Neil and William Lee Smith (afternoon); John MacDonald, Paul Reiber, Ray Cullen, and Frank Giardina (table).

HOME OF MR. AND MRS. WILLIS S. FITCH: "Stonebrook"; Mmes. David Putnam, Leonel Correa, Albert R. Davidson of Barrington, R. I., and Thomas H. Garber (morning); William Livermore, Theodore Collins, Robert Barlow and John Wagner (afternoon); H. G. Morrison, John Reynolds, Bennett Willis and Theodore Lopatkiewicz (table).

Hostesses at the information and ticket table at the St. John's Episcopal Church, Old Georgetown Pike, where lunch will be served from 11 a.m. until 2 p.m. and tea in the afternoon will be Mrs. Robert Hankey and Mrs. Edward R. Marcus.

THE TOUR is sponsored by the six McLean area garden clubs and the Mothers of the McLean Boys' Club, for the benefit of the boys' club.